FROM THE PASTOR...

There are many avenues of ministry at Faith and Wisdom Church and I thank God for every one of them. But mostly I thank God for you...the people who have passionately committed, sacrifice and surrender their time, energy and their very lives. We must remember that it takes each of us to be passionate about some portion of this ministry, to commit to work for Christ in a diligent manner, to sacrifice time and energy, to completely surrender to God's will and then do the work of the ministry in this church. About three years ago, a lady with great passion and commitment asked if she could use a church van to bring some children to the midweek service at FWC. We said, "Yes! She began bringing a van on Wednesdays, filled with kids and then it expanded to two vans...they then began to fill the vans on Sunday mornings and children came to our KIDZ Ministry at FWC. The passion that one person had for this "bus ministry" stimulated many other people to be involved and to help bring children to church. That passionate lady no longer attends this church...and she took her passion with her. If we are to complete this vision and if our bus ministry is to continue, God must raise up a leader with deep sacrificial passion who is committed and totally surrendered. I want to thank everyone who has worked in the "Soul Patrol" ministry over the past years...you are a blessing! But there must be more people who will step up... people who will sacrifice their time and lives on Saturdays and Sundays to minister to these families and win them to Christ. And so...sadly I say, we will now suspend the "Soul Patrol" bus ministry until the passion is rekindled and the fire starts to burn red-hot once again for our bus ministry. Is God speaking to you?
