FROM THE STAFF...

If all you had access to of the Word of God was one page from the Bible and what you already had committed to memory, would you have enough information to reach someone with the Gospel?
Would you eagerly gather together as a body to read the pages others have in their hands to gain more information?
Could you easily speak of the greatness of your Creator, the sacrifice of your Savior and the indwelling of the Holy Spirit in a way that would bring others into the Kingdom?
Billy Graham states: "more people today know the words of a television commercial than know the words in the Bible".
Some of our greatest blessings as believers are gathering together as a body and encouraging one another, having the written Word to rely on for instruction, and edifying each other when trials occur.
What do you bring to this assembly of believers?
Jesus encouraged us to "not forsake the assembling of ourselves together" in the book of Hebrews. He knew we would need one another, and He designed us for fellowship.
Ministering in a local body of believers is a mandate...not an option.
If you are not yet plugged in to a ministry here at Faith & Wisdom Church ask God where you fit...and jump in...today.
What you hold in your hands is quite possibly what someone else is in need of...
